1999 DEDICATION

Jessica Bethoney & Pam McDonald

Ms. Bethoney & Mrs. McDonald,

During the past four years, the two of you have stood by us. You have watched us grow and supported us. As a class, we would like to dedicate this book to you! Thank you both for your continuous love and support. We love you and we will miss you!

BASKETBALL

Give me a "M", give me an "O", give me an "N", give me an "S", give me an "O", give me an "N". What does that spell? MONSON... can't hear you... MONSON.

There was a great deal of cheering to be heard during the 98-99 basketball season. Good defense, spectacular plays, dunks, and dedication definitely directed the desire for "Da" tournament.

The team put together a series of great games to get into the tournament. It was impressive because the teams they defeated down the stretch were the same teams that put them in the hole early in the season. What made the difference? Diving for loose balls, taking charges, executing out of bounds plays correctly, and good team defense lead to the turnaround.

The Fire Alarm Game of 1999, as it will be written in the history books, was a classic. Monson was playing Dean Tech in the tournament and each team had split during the regular season. The first half was all Dean Tech, they played good defense and shot the ball very well. The second half saw Monson dig into the lead and was mounting a great comeback. The score was 38-32 and Monson had the ball. The fire alarm went off with 7:38 remaining in the game. The cold Arctic weather outside cooled Monson down and the team wasn't able to recover.

The team won't forget Louisville, Kentucky, UMass, or Deal, good set plays. Nor will they forget teammates Neil Sommers, Ed Wilson, and Justin Smith.

BASKETBALL

Among all the teams in the League, year after year, Coach Phil Murray put out a powerful squad. The team earned a second seed in the Western Mass Division III Tournament. This year's Mustangs made it to the semi-finals with grace. They finished the season with an overall record of 15-5.

The team losses four seniors this year. Eldi Nissenbaum, who's drive-n-dish can't be replace; Tara Slozakm, and her big three's; Pam Kattler, and her tenacious defense; and Christine Bren, who's presence in the back court is like no other.

Next year the team will be back and stronger than ever....

SOFTBALL

This year, the Varsity Softball Team was off to a great start. Going three games undefeated, then going down in a valley to three losses. The team picked it up to make the Western Mass Division III tournament with a regular season record of 10-8. The team losses three great leaders. Pam Kattler, will be missed in center field and shortstop; Kristen Van de Goer, out in left; and Christine Bren, will be retiring her catcher's equipment.

The team wishes next year's team the best of luck.
